

PRESS RELEASE

January 15th, 2020

i-Portunus 2021 – EU MOBILITY SCHEME FOR ARTISTS, CREATORS AND CULTURAL PROFESSIONALS: CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR ARCHITECTURE

i-Portunus – Second Pilot Phase

i-Portunus supports the mobility of artists, creators and cultural professionals among all countries participating in the Creative Europe programme. This second pilot phase of i-Portunus was selected and is co-funded by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union and a consortium, headed by Goethe-Institut together with Institut français and Izolyatsia. This second pilot phase will run from end of 2020 to end of 2021.

Through a demand-driven mobility scheme and a straightforward but flexible application process, i-Portunus answers to existing and new needs of the creative sectors to support short-term mobility. i-Portunus supports artistic mobility in the context of international collaboration, production-oriented residency and professional development.

New call opens on 15 January 2021 with deadline on 14 March 2021

On Friday 15 January i-Portunus launches a call for applications for the ARCHITECTURE sector.

Who can apply?

- Architects, cultural professionals active in architecture.

What can you apply for?

Short-term mobility in the context of:

- international collaboration
- a production-oriented residency
- professional development activities

When: mobility between 16 June and 30 November 2021, conditions permitting.

Duration: between 7 and 60 days.

Maximum grant per person: 3.000,00 EUR.

Deadline for submission of applications: 14 March 2021.

Further information:

www.i-portunus.eu

Goethe-Institut Brussels
i-Portunus
Avenue des Arts 58
Kunstlaan 58
1000 Brussels

alan.quireyns@goethe.de www.goethe.de/belgien/medien

www.goethe.de

GOETHE
INSTITUT

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.